Before You File for Office

What you will need, how to file, important dates, qualifications, filing fee, OVG, approval, and party contacts

What you will need

- Precinct Committee Officer Declaration of Candidacy

How to file

Online

Online filing starts May 16 at 9 a.m. and ends May 20 at 4 p.m. at elections.lewiscountywa.gov

All you need is an email address.

By mail

Mail your Declaration (page 4) between May 2 and May 20 to:

Lewis County Elections
PO Box 29
Chehalis, WA 98532

In person

File in person between Monday, May 16 and Friday, May 20 from 8 a.m. until 4:30 p.m. at:

Lewis County Elections
351 N.W. North St
Chehalis, WA 98532

Important dates

- May 2 candidate filing by mail begins
- May 16 candidate filing online & in person begins
- May 20 candidate filing ends
- May 23 last day to withdraw

Qualifications

Candidates must, at the time of filing, be a registered voter in the precinct for which they are filing.

Candidates may only file as a Democratic Party PCO or a Republican Party PCO. Since voters do not register by political party in Washington State, a candidate declares to be a member of a political party at the time of filing.

Filing fee

No filing fee is required for the office of Precinct Committee Officer.

Online Voters' Guide

This office is not included in the Online or Printed Voters' Guide. You will not submit a photo or statement with your declaration of candidacy.

Approval

Please provide an email address with your Declaration of Candidacy. Once you have been approved as a candidate, you will receive a confirmation email.

Your name will not appear on any official lists as a candidate for office until your Declaration is approved.

The final ballot order of candidates in your race will be determined by lot draw after candidate filing ends.

Party Contacts

For more information contact your political party:

Complete your Declaration of Candidacy

Office information, personal information, ballot name, contact information, and oath

1. Office information

Select the political party of which you are a member. You may only file as a Democratic Party PCO or a Republican Party PCO.

Enter the name and number of the precinct you wish to represent. This will be the voting precinct where you reside and are registered to vote.

If you do not know your precinct name and number, you can find it by logging in at www.myvote.wa.gov.

2. Personal information

Enter your name and address exactly as it appears on your voter registration. You may confirm your voter registration information at www.votewa.gov.

3. Ballot name

Print your name exactly as you want it to appear on the ballot. Nicknames are acceptable.

Titles denoting occupations, including military rank, positions on issues, political affiliation, symbols, or anything intentionally designed to mislead voters are not acceptable.

4. Contact information

If you file online, you must provide an email address.

Enter your mailing address, if it is different from your residential address. You may also enter a contact phone number.

Your contact information will be published online in the list of candidates who have filed.

Government offices may not be used for contact information.

5. Oath

Read and sign the oath. Your filing will not be approved without your signature. If you file online, no signature is required.

Online filing is fast and easy!

For the best possible service, file for office online at elections.lewiscountywa.gov.

The online filing tool will give you step-by-step instructions, email you a confirmation of your filing, and alert you when other candidates file in your race.

Other Information and Forms

Will my name appear on the ballot?

Only contested PCO races within each political party will appear on the Primary ballot. If only one person files for office, the candidate is deemed elected and the Lewis County Elections Office will issue a Certification of Election and Oath of Office to all PCO's after certification of the Primary. Certificates of Election and Oaths of Office are provided to the Democratic Party and Republican Party; they are not provided directly to the candidate.

Ballot information

PCO races only appear in the Primary. If both party positions appear on the ballot, the order of the parties is determined by the statewide results of the last Presidential Election. Candidate order within each party is determined by lot. The lot draw is done on Friday, May 20, 2022 after the close of candidate filing at the Lewis County Elections Office.

What if no one files?

If no one files for office, there will be no special filing period. The position is filled by the chair of the central committee of the appropriate political party.

Withdrawal of candidacy

If you wish to withdraw, your signed withdrawal form must be received by the Elections Office by the end of business on Monday, May 23. Print a candidate withdrawal form at elections.lewiscountywa.gov/forms or see page 5 of this guide.

Write-in candidates

Write-in candidates have been eliminated from PCO elections. A candidate cannot file as a declared write-in. A write-in line is not printed on the ballot and no write-in votes will be counted.

Campaign assistance

Voter information is available for political purposes only. Candidates must complete an Election Data Request form available elections.lewiscountywa.gov.

Campaign finance reporting

Precinct Committee Officers are exempt from the record keeping and reporting requirements of the state public disclosure law. All candidates for state, local, or judicial office must still adhere to the law and rules governing political advertising and the prohibition against using public equipment or other resources to support or oppose a candidate or ballot measure regardless of whether they are exempt from the record keeping and reporting requirements of the state public disclosure law.

Campaign sign regulations

If you plan to post campaign signs, please note that it is the responsibility of each candidate to contact the jurisdiction in which they plan to place political signs for sign regulations and rules. Jurisdictions may have size restrictions, deadlines for removal, and/or require a deposit.

Sign violation complaints do not fall under the jurisdiction of the Lewis County Elections Office. Please contact the following jurisdictions for rules and to report potential violations.

To report potential sign violations in a city or town:

Contact the local jurisdiction regarding regulations and requirements.

To report illegal roadside signs or potential sign violations on private property in unincorporated Lewis County:

Lewis County Public Works: 360-740-1123
