Purpose of the Jurisdiction Survey

The Jurisdiction Survey is sent to all jurisdictions each year to confirm current office holder, salary and term information. This information is used to properly conduct candidate filing for each office and jurisdiction in Lewis County.

Completing the Jurisdiction Survey

Prior to February 1st of each year, Lewis County Elections mails a Jurisdiction Survey to each jurisdiction asking for confirmation of information. Jurisdictions must respond and provide the following information:

- Current contact information for the jurisdiction administrator.
- Information about current elected officials such as office title, position number, office holder's name, annual salary at the time of candidate filing, and term expiration.

Jurisdiction administrators must complete the survey prior to March 1st so that candidate filing information can be compiled and distributed to the public in advance of the candidate filing period.

Common questions

What if an office becomes vacant or there is a new appointment after I have submitted the Jurisdiction Survey?

You need to notify Lewis County Elections once an office becomes vacant, email is sufficient.

Prior to appointing a new person, contact Elections to verify that they are a qualified, registered voter for that office.

Once someone is appointed to that office, notify Elections in writing, email is sufficient.

What if an office holder receives per diem or is paid on a per meeting basis?

Per diem is not a fixed annual salary and should not be included.

What do I do with completed oaths?

Send completed oaths of office to the Lewis County Auditor's Office. They will be recorded free of charge and retained by the County Auditor.

Office Holders

Information about current office holders, resignations, appointments, and oaths of office

Chapter 03

Importance of keeping Lewis County Elections informed

It is extremely important that Lewis County Elections has accurate, up-to-date information regarding current office holders. The information is used to determine which offices are subject to election. Please notify our office of all vacancies and appointments that occur throughout the year.

Resignations/Vacancies

If an elected official resigns, is removed from office, dies, or in some cases, changes their voter registration status, it causes a vacancy of office.

The officer who wishes to resign should submit his or her resignation to the board of the junior taxing district.

Once an office becomes vacant, notify Lewis County Elections immediately. Notification must be in writing; email is sufficient. Please include the name of the office holder, the office and position number, and the effective date of the resignation. Additional information regarding vacancies can be found in RCW 42.12

New appointments

When a position is vacant, the remaining members of the board will appoint a qualified person to fill the vacant position. Prior to appointing an individual to fill a vacancy, provide Elections with a list of applicant names, dates of birth and/or residential addresses and our office can confirm candidates are qualified registered voters of the jurisdiction.

If the board does not appoint a qualified person to fill a vacancy within ninety days of the occurrence of the vacancy, the county legislative authority will appoint a qualified person.

Once an individual has been appointed, notify Elections of the appointment in writing; email is sufficient. Please include the name of the appointed person, contact information for that person, and the effective date of the appointment.

The board will sign the Certificate of Appointment and the newly appointed officer will sign the Oath of Office. Send the completed oaths of office to the Lewis County Auditor's Office. They will be recorded free of charge and retained by the County Auditor. A Certificate of Appointment/Oath of Office form can be found in the resources (last page). A fillable form can also be found on the Lewis County Elections website at <https://elections.lewiscountywa.gov> under the "Forms" tab. The form is titled "Oath of Office Form."

The newly appointed officer will serve until the next election at which a candidate for the jurisdiction is elected. In that election, the position will be elected for an unexpired term ending at the remainder of the original term.

Oath of office rules

Who is required to take an oath of office?

Every person elected or appointed to an office in the State of Washington is required by our state and federal constitutions to take an oath prior to serving in office.

Candidate Filing

General information about candidate filing for jurisdictions and office holders

Chapter 04

Jurisdiction administrators - your role during candidate filing

Jurisdiction administrators are not active participants in the candidate filing process. All candidates are responsible for submitting their own Declaration of Candidacy. Jurisdiction resources should not be used to assist an elected official or candidate to file for office.

Candidate filing

All persons wishing to have his or her name printed on the ballot must file a Declaration of Candidacy. Any person filing a Declaration of Candidacy must meet the qualifications specified by law for that office at the time of filing the Declaration of Candidacy. The candidate must be a registered voter of the jurisdiction for which they are filing, which is verified by Lewis County Elections. It is the responsibility of the candidate to ensure that he or she meets any and all other requirements for the office.

For offices with an annual salary greater than $1,000, a filing fee equal to 1% of the annual salary must accompany the Declaration of Candidacy at the time of filing. A filing fee is not charged for any office that is compensated on a per diem or per meeting basis. A filing fee of $10 shall accompany the Declaration of Candidacy for any office with a fixed annual salary of $1,000 or less.

A candidate who lacks sufficient assets or income at the time of filing to pay the filing fee may submit a filing fee petition with his or her Declaration of Candidacy.

Filing fees are not refundable. If a candidate withdraws their Declaration of Candidacy, he or she forfeits the filing fee.

Filing fees are not transferable. If a candidate withdraws their Declaration of Candidacy and re-files for a different position a second filing fee must be paid for the new position.

The candidate filing period begins the first Monday in May and ends the following Friday.

2025 candidate filing dates

April 21 Candidate filing by mail begins

May 5-9 Candidate filing week: online and in person

May 12 Last day for candidates to withdraw

May 20 Last day to submit a statement or photo for the local voters' pamphlet

Withdrawal of candidacy

Candidates may withdraw their Declaration of Candidacy prior to the deadline to withdraw.

There is no withdrawal period for Declarations of Candidacy filed during special candidate filing periods.

RCW 29A.24.075

No filing fees will be refunded to any candidate that withdraws.

RCW 29A.24.081

RCW 29A.24.091

RCW 29A.24.131

Write-in candidates

If an individual wishes to file for an office after the candidate filing period has passed, he or she must file a Declaration of Write-in Candidacy. If the Declaration of Write-in Candidacy is filed between the close of candidate filing and more than 18 days prior to a primary or election, there is no filing fee. If the Declaration of Write-In Candidacy is filed 18 days or less prior to a primary or election, a filing fee is required. The deadline for filing is no later than 8:00 p.m. on Election Day.

Residency requirements

All candidates must be a registered voter of the jurisdiction for which they have filed a Declaration of Candidacy. It is the candidate's responsibility to ensure he or she meets any and all other requirements.

No double filings

A candidate cannot file for more than one office appearing on the ballot, with the exception of filing as a Precinct Committee Officer or Freeholder.

Shared/joint districts

Below are districts that are shared by more than one county. The primary county issues certificates of election and accepts Declarations of Candidacy for that jurisdiction.

Jurisdictions	Counties that share the district
School Districts
Castle Rock School District	*Cowlitz, Lewis
Centralia School District	*Lewis, Thurston
Eatonville School District	Lewis, *Pierce
Oakville School District	*Grays Harbor, Lewis
Pe Ell School District	*Lewis, Pacific
Rochester School District	Lewis, *Thurston, Grays Harbor
Fire District
Cowlitz – Lewis Fire Protection District 20	Cowlitz, *Lewis

* indicates "lead" or primary county

Candidate filing - voids and lapses

A void in candidacy occurs when no valid Declarations of Candidacy have been filed for a position, or all candidates that did file a valid Declaration of Candidacy have withdrawn, died, or been disqualified. If a void in candidacy occurs after the regular candidate filing period, but before the day of the primary, a special three-day candidate filing period will be held. The date of the special filing period will be determined by the filing officer. Notice of the void in candidacy will be given, and include the time and place for individuals to file a Declaration of Candidacy.

All candidates that file a valid Declaration of Candidacy during the special candidate filing period will appear on the general election ballot. A primary election will not be held for that office. The candidate receiving the most votes for that office in the general election is deemed elected.

If, after the regular and special candidate filing periods have passed, no candidate has filed a valid Declaration of Candidacy, the election for that office is deemed lapsed and the office will not appear on the ballot.

If a lapse of election occurs, the current office holder will remain in office and continue to serve until the next succeeding general election that the office is allowed by law to have an election.

Candidate filing - vacancies

When a vacancy in office occurs, certain factors determine when the office will appear on the general election ballot, such as the date the vacancy occurs and whether the office was scheduled for election that year.

If, prior to the first day of the regular candidate filing period, a vacancy occurs in an office that is not scheduled to appear on the general election ballot, valid Declarations of Candidacy for that office will be accepted during the regular candidate filing period. Lewis County Elections will give notice of the vacancy. The notice will include the date, time, and place for filing Declarations of Candidacy.

If, on the first day of the regular candidate filing period or later, a vacancy occurs in an office that is not scheduled to appear on the general election ballot, Declarations of Candidacy will not be accepted for that office during the regular candidate filing period. That office will instead be open for filing at the next succeeding general election that the office is allowed by law to have an election.

Candidate Statements and Photos

Candidate statement and photo rules and deadlines

For the primary, a local voters' pamphlet is available for offices that have three or more candidate filings.

Candidates must submit statements and photos electronically online through the link received via email after filing. Paper copies of statements or photos will not be accepted.

All submissions will be published to the public once reviewed and approved by Elections staff.

Candidates may not submit new information after the deadline. The information submitted will be used for the primary (if applicable) and the general election local voters' pamphlet.

Election Costs

Information about calculating the cost of participating in an election

Chapter 09

Cost of participating in an election

Election costs are based upon a jurisdiction's proportionate share. Each jurisdiction's cost is determined by taking the total number of registered voters in the jurisdiction and dividing it by the total number of all registered voters in all participating jurisdictions in the election.

Election costs vary from one election to the next depending on a variety of factors. For instance, whether or not the election is held in an odd or even-numbered year is a significant factor for determining costs in a primary or general election; but less of a factor for a special election held in February or April. This is primarily due to the number of participating jurisdictions in an odd-numbered year as opposed to an even-numbered year.

Although the overall cost of a primary or general election from one year to the next is somewhat comparable, a general election shared by five jurisdictions is going to cost more per voter for each jurisdiction than an election shared by fifteen jurisdictions.

Special elections in February and April are often shared by a smaller number of jurisdictions, thus the proportional share is often greater. In the case of a single jurisdiction election, the cost would be 100%.

Lewis County Elections will prepare and send billing notifications to participating jurisdictions at the end of each election.

Prior to deciding when to place a measure on the ballot, jurisdictions may contact Elections to request a cost estimate. Estimates will be based on a reasonable range, taking historical information into account. A specific cost or quote cannot be provided, as there are unknown factors such as the number of jurisdictions participating in an election.

Financial Hardship (RCW 29A.32.220)

The Lewis County Board of County Commissioners (BOCC) has the authority to waive financial responsibility of any jurisdiction where participation in the local voters' pamphlet would create undue financial hardship. A petition from a jurisdiction must be submitted to the BOCC and a copy provided to the County Auditor Elections Department no later than 60 days before the publication of the local voters' pamphlet.

Publication of the pamphlet is defined as the date on which the County Auditor signs the final pamphlet proof and sends it to the printer.

A jurisdiction receiving a waiver for local voters' pamphlet costs will continue to be responsible for their remaining portion of the election costs.

General Election Turnout for Validation

Information about bond and levy validation

Chapter 10

Bond and levy election validations

Passing a levy or bond issue is not always a simple matter of majority rules. State law requires bond issues and some types of levies to have a “super majority” in order to pass; while other levies, such as a levy lid lift, only requires a simple majority.

Levy validation for school districts

A school district levy requires a simple majority to pass.

Levy validation (excluding school levies)

Non-school district levies have two thresholds that must be met in order for the levy to pass:

1. The levy must receive a minimum 60% majority; and
2. A minimum number of “Yes” votes must be cast, which is determined by calculating 60% of 40% of the number of voters in the jurisdiction that cast ballots in the previous general election.

Bond validation

Bond issues also have two thresholds that must be met in order for the bond to pass:

1. The bond must receive a minimum 60% majority; and
2. The voter turnout for that jurisdiction must equal 40% of the voters who cast ballots in the previous general election.

General Election turnout

Following certification of the general election each year, Lewis County Elections will publish the voter turnout report for each taxing district to the Elections website in the “Current Election” tab, under “Election Certification”.

This report includes the following for each jurisdiction:

- The total number of active registered voters at the time of the general election;
- The number of votes cast for the general election

The county auditor is not responsible for determining minimum turnout or yes votes required for ballot measures and will not determine if ballot measures meet requirements for passage. The district is responsible for making the final legal determination of whether a measure passed or failed based on the certified vote totals and applicable law. WAC 434-262-017

Types of Local Measures

Bonds

A district may ask for authorization of bonds, usually to build/or equip a structure. New schools, fire stations, and libraries are examples for bond construction money.

Levies

A district may ask for authorization to cover their maintenance and operation cost.

Levy Lid Increases

A district may ask for authorization to increase its regular property tax levy rate. By law, districts have to follow a tax allocation distribution formula. If a district determines the allocation is not enough, the district has the option of requesting a levy lid increase.

Annexations

A district may ask for authorization to be placed within another taxing district or change its boundary lines.

Other –

Advisory Ballots, Sales and Use Tax, Change of Form of Government, other.

A district may ask voters' approval or opinion to change an existing situation or create something new. For example, creation of a new district.

Voter data lists may include the following: Name, residential address, mailing address, precinct information, voter ID, date of registration, date of birth, gender, and last election voted.

The Secretary of State’s Office maintains one statewide list of voters that serves as the official list of registered voters for Washington State. Statewide requests for voter data and voting history must be made through The Office of the Secretary of State, Elections Division. ## Matchbacks

Ballot return data, commonly referred to as “matchbacks” include a list of voters in a current election that have returned a ballot. The file will contain the same information as a voter data request but will also include: a list of ballots received, accepted, or challenged. In these reports, “rejected” is a temporary term (in many cases) that means the ballot is being challenged. Most challenged ballots have until the day before certification to be resolved by the voter with the proper form.

Matchback data is available for download for free online at:

<https://www.sos.wa.gov/elections/research/data-and-statistics.aspx>

(1) In the case of voter registration records received through the department of licensing or an agency designated under RCW 29A.08.310, the identity of the office or agency at which any particular individual registered to vote is not available for public inspection and shall not be disclosed to the public. Any record of a particular individual's choice not to register to vote at an office of the department of licensing or a state agency designated under RCW 29A.08.310 is not available for public inspection and any information regarding such a choice by a particular individual shall not be disclosed to the public.

(2) Subject to the restrictions of RCW 29A.08.710 and 40.24.060, precinct lists and current lists of registered voters are public records and must be made available for public inspection and copying under such reasonable rules and regulations as the county auditor or secretary of state may prescribe.
